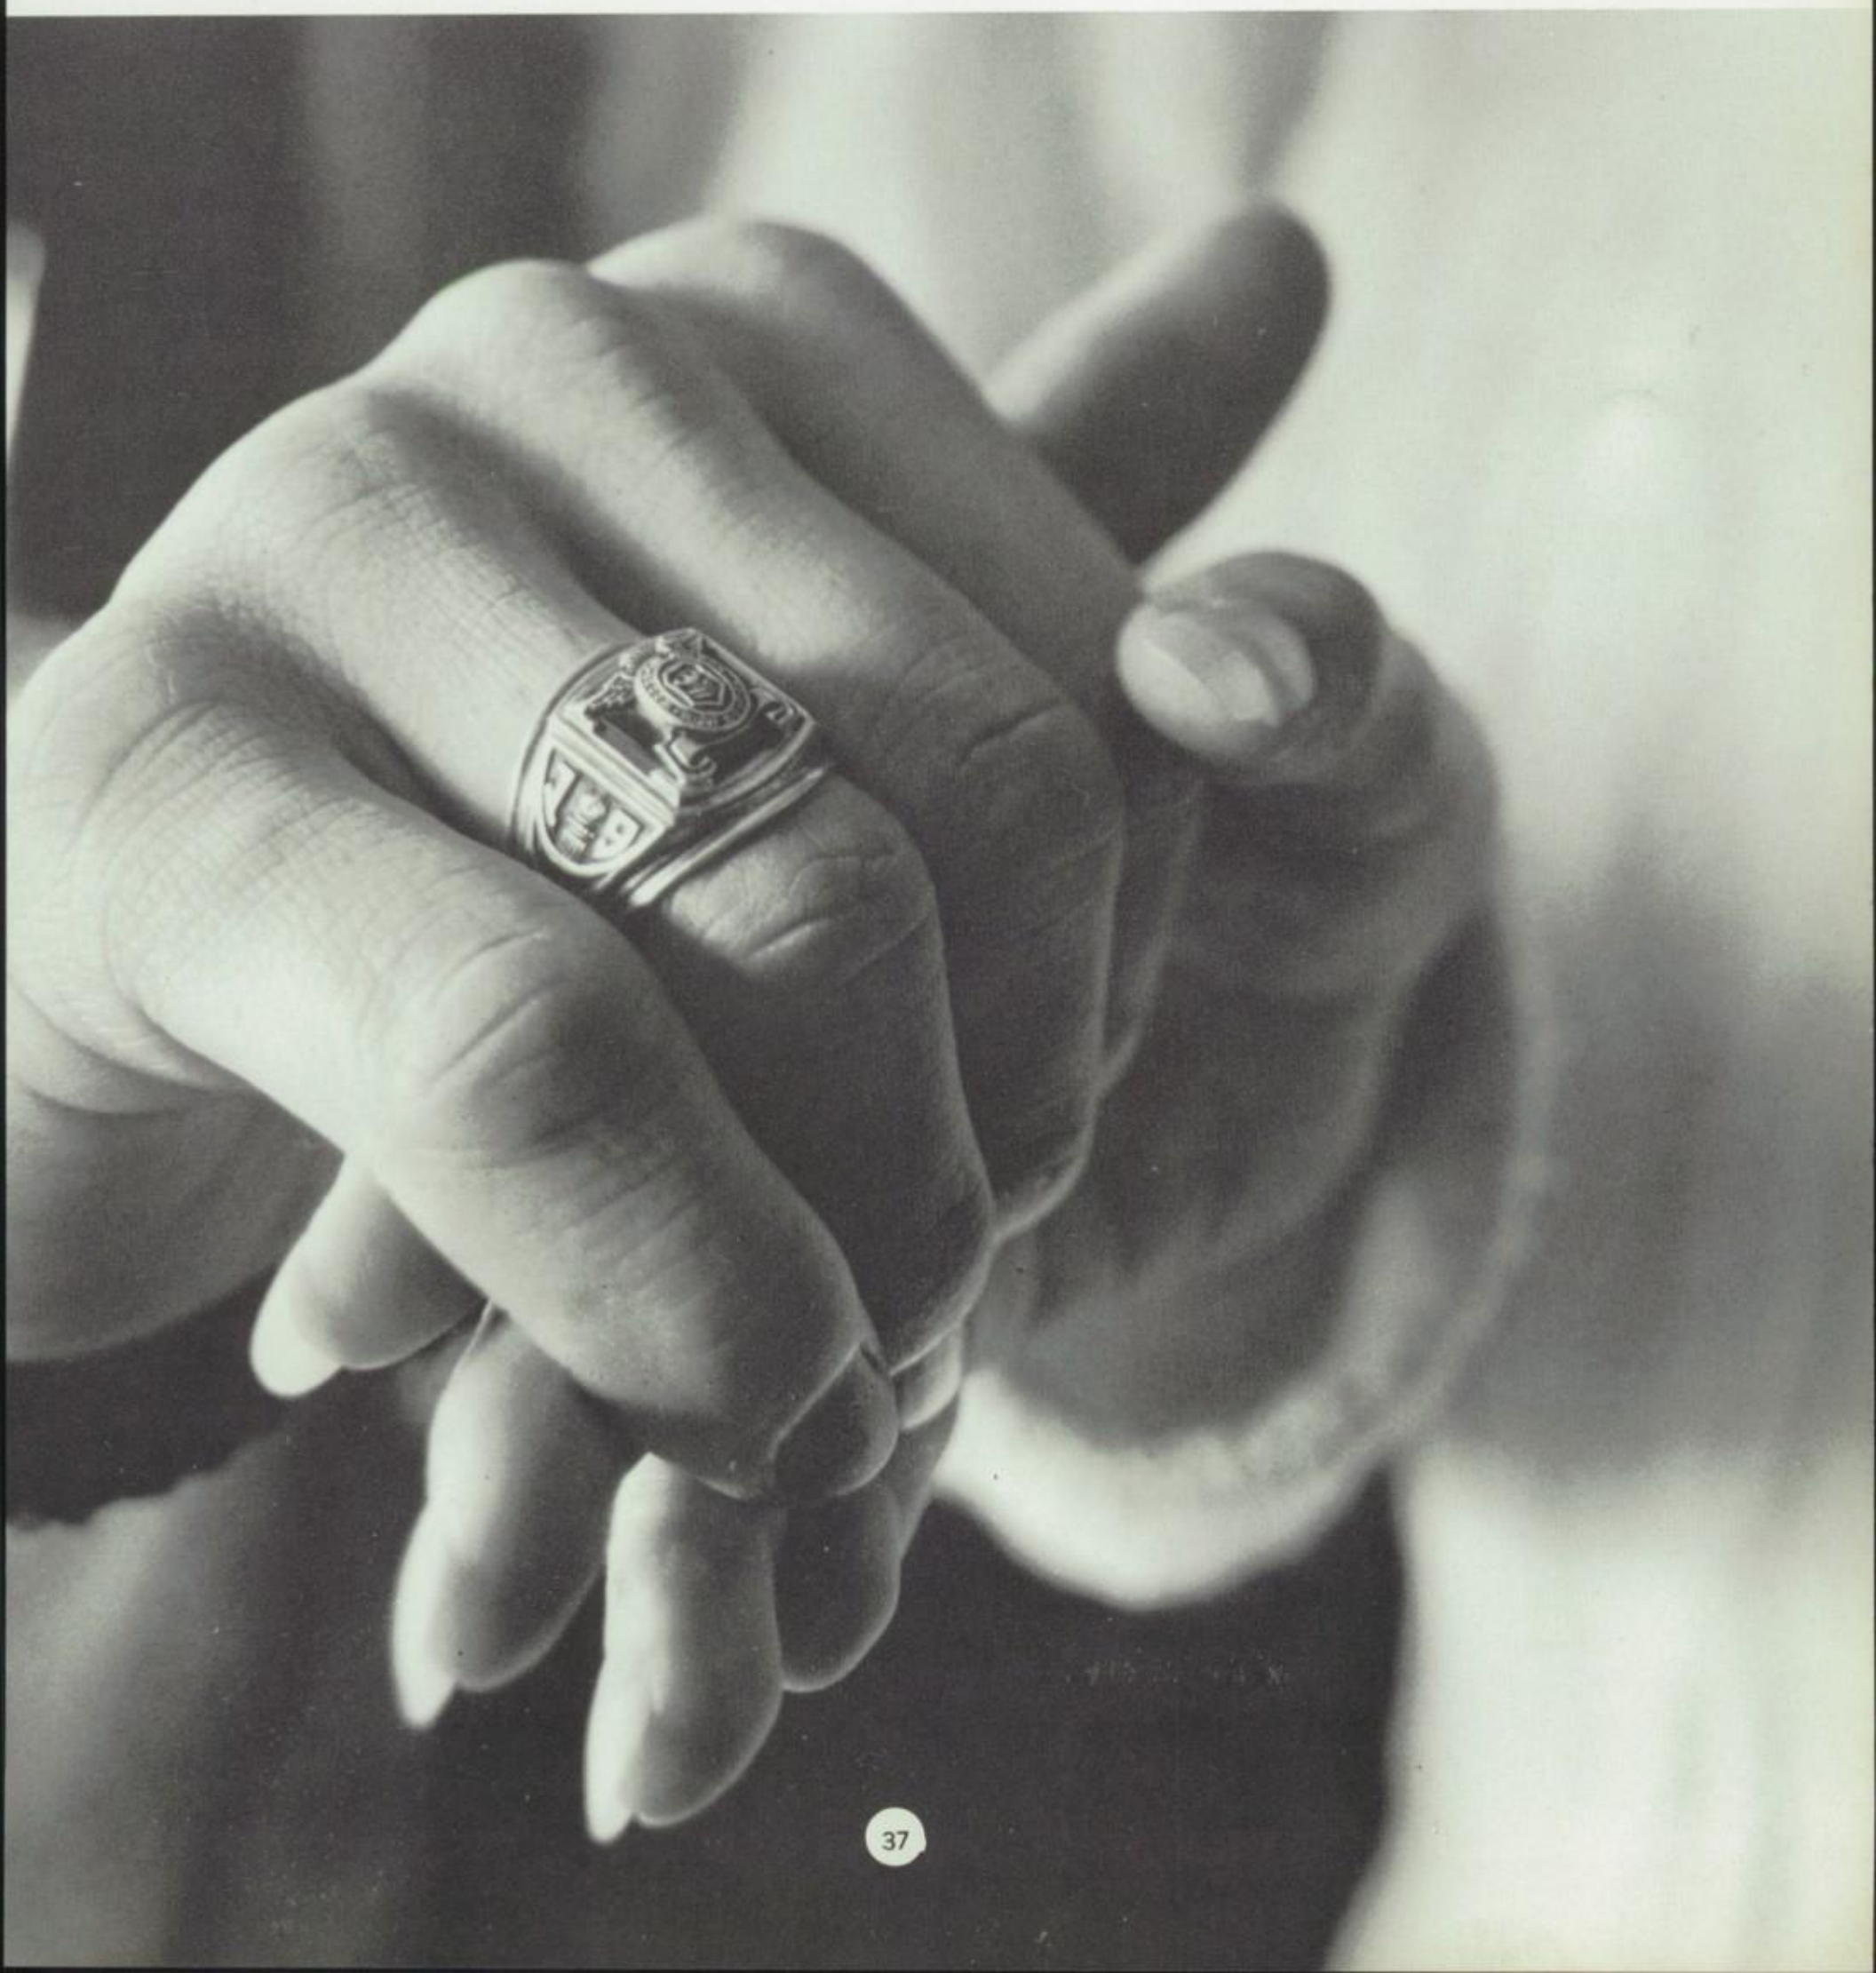
Seniors Show Spirit.



Class History

In 1965, we gave little indication of being more than a typical freshman class. We shrieked from our balcony, bumbled down the halls, elected Andy Hawkins class president, and felt just a little remorse at having both our principal, Dr. Allen, and our assistant principal, Mr. Galliford, retire from Wilson's administrative staff at the same time.

As sophomores we became more involved in school life and discovered what a satisfying word gross was. Bobby Holland took over the class presidency, J. V. Cheerleaders leaped from our midst, and we lurked about the halls peddling toothbrushes. After about forty minutes of recurring Stars and Stripes Forever, William Spong Day was launched to honor our politically successful alumnus; and in dramatics we were particularly proud that Agnes Mobley and Bobby Holland held lead roles in the annual musical, Li'l Abner.

Mike Tapler, State and National DECA Vice-President, headed our junior class, and we went through the traditions of ordering class rings and nominating contestants for the Homecoming Court; Carol Garrett was elected Maid of Honor, and Pam Hambleton and Lynne Jeffreys served as her attendants. We presented the first Powder Puff football game in several years and watched with "mixed feelings" as our class sponsor Miss Lois Gusler, found herself in possession of the pigskin, began trotting down the field, and suddenly found herself reclining in a sludge pit while scores of junior girls seized the opportunity to avenge biology failures and connived to construct a cone with Miss Gusler providing the foundation. Vicki Newsome proved to be a regular little starlet; she starred in all three of the annual dramatic productions. Evaluation meant such degrading tasks as scraping gum off desk tops and erasing restroom literature, but Wilson did an excellent job of impressing the critics, and the National Honor Society rewarded our efforts with the freshness of Daisy Day. Springtime meant the birth of an unusual television program called Laugh In and preparation for the Junior-Senior Prom, "An Arabian Night," complete with murals, food to fit the theme, and the gym's first cheesecloth ceiling.

But more happened during our junior year. The world's first heart transplant was successfully performed, Vietnam dragged on, and a horrible era of violence settled over the country. Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., was shot, ending his life but not his "dream," and just as it seemed that his career would attain new heights Robert Kennedy was also assassinated.

June 7th came, and our official status became "senior."

Andy Hawkins headed the student body as S.C.A. President, and we re-elected Mike Tapler our class president. "We're Number 1!" was shouted all over Tidewater and the really glorious thing was that we were! The Wilson football team won the Eastern Regional Championship and we had the satisfaction of knowing that point-wise we were Number 1 in the State, too. Other Number 1's Captured were in indoor and outdoor track, wrestling and cross country, track, and we tied for District 1st place in basketball. Ruth Campbell reigned as Homecoming Queen – attended by Rachel Lindsey and Billie Jean Blaylock – and once again a Wilson girl, Sue Harris, captured the Portsmouth Junior Miss title. On Senior Day we hauled our traditional lollipops around and paraded the halls with our heads swathed in construction paper (mockeries of the symbolic graduation caps). Becky Barclay rose to fame as a speech maker, dramatist, and over-all scholar, sharing this last honor with Mark Sullivan as they composed half of Wilson's winning "Hi-Q" team.

Jackie Kennedy shocked the world by remarrying, Richard Nixon was inaugurated President, and Hong Kong Flu travelled the country, apparently finding Virginia a distasteful place. Wilson students tutored at Riddick-Weaver Elementary School, the "Remember the Pueblo" crew was released from Korea, and Vietnam remained undeniably real.

We graduated much like other senior classes, but each of us knew he had been a significant, necessary part of an outstanding class, and we ended the twelve-year project and broke the unity with dignity. This is our history, and these are our hopes. "May thy name e'er stir our mem'ries" – may we take more than memories with us. We all want success, happiness, and peace, and we hope to be remembered as a much greater than "typical" group of men and women.

"And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Seated: Mike Tapler, President; Standing: Ruth Campbell, Vice-President; Cheri Wyron, S.C.A. Rep.; Danny Smith, S.C.A. Rep.; Linda Satterfield, Secretary; Buddy Moore, Boy's Treasurer; Miss Gusler, Advisor; Mark Sullivan, Court of Honor; Pam Moody, Girl's Treasurer.

Coach Ralph Gahagan

Newport News Sept. 13

The Woodrow Wilson Presidents started the season off with a bang. With a Driving ground attack and a forceful defense, Johnny Klise, Big Boy Brown, and Varon Rollins started the ball rolling for a very big season.

Wilson 34 Newport News 6

Randy Hargraves

David Lassiter

Churchland Sept. 20

Varon Rollins was only in the game for two plays when he had scored two touchdowns, which sums up the Prexie's slaughter of the Truckers. With a good air attack Wilson just ate up the yardage. At the end of the game Wilson had given Churchland its worst defeat ever with a score of 50–0

George Boswell

Michael Fagan

Barry Wagner

Sebastian Collins

Indian River Sept. 27

For the third game of the season Wilson played host to the Indian River Braves. The first half saw two evenly matched teams, but in the third quarter the Presidents pulled away. The two platoon Presidents scalped the Braves 40–13

Mike O'Connor

Pat Kelly

Norview Oct. 4

The Presidents faced the tough Norview Pilots. It was one of the most exciting games of the year, and with the most action. The defense played its most superb game, holding the Pilots to one touchdown and very little yardage. The Prexies won 13–6

Oscar Smith Oct. 11

A homecoming crowd of 8000 saw the Presidents defeat the undefeated Tigers of Oscar Smith with running passing and lots of defense. The Presidents lengthened their winning streak with a score of 33–7.

Ray McGinley

Monty Matthews

Robert McCarty

Darryl Thompson

Deep Creek

The underrated pass defense of Wilson let Jackie Young of Deep Creek know what it's like to have passes intercepted. The whole game turned into a scoring battle, with Wilson getting more than half the points. Wilson 51–20 over Deep Creek.

Doug Whitley

Johnny Klise

Great Bridge Oct. 25

Before the Great Bridge game, the Wildcats coach Billy O'Brien said he had a lot of tricks up his sleeve. As the game progressed it turned out that the Presidents had more up their sleeve and made the Wildcats eat crow. Wilson 40–0 over Great Bridge.

Maury Nov. 8

The Maury Commodores visited Lawrence Stadium with hopes of defeating the steam-rolling Presidents. Robert Powell, Varon Rollins and Johnny Klise turned the game into a shambles with long runs and longer passes. The Presidents ruined the Commodores ideas with a score of 49–7

Harrison Hartwell

Alvin Ely

Granby Nov. 15

The Presidents went to Foreman Field with hopes of bringing home another victory. For the first time the sharp Presidents looked dull as they had to come from behind to tie the Granby Comets 13–13

Steve Philbrick

Cradock Nov. 22

The Presidents came home for the last game of the season. The Prexies looking for revenge after the tie with Granby, took it out on the Cradock Admirals with a score of 49–6

Come see the making of power

Vepco's first commercial atomic power station is now under construction in Surry County, Virginia. In the new Information Center overlooking the site, you will see an excellent slide presentation, fascinating exhibits, and a working model of the reactor. (And from the balcony, you can watch them assemble the real thing.) Open 10 AM to 4 PM Monday through Saturday and 1 PM to 6 PM on Sunday. For tour information call 771-3194 in Richmond.

Johnny,

I still don't know where to start. I know that I will never find any boy that can or will give me as much as you have + I don't mean just one certain thing. It is hard to find a nice Christaina boy in this world. Sometimes I stop to think How lucky I was to met you. It is wonderful to know that Christ has plans for each individual and that they work out if we put our trust in him. His plans usually work out the problems people have and it's the best in the end. Sometimes I wish I could look into the future too see what will hapen and too see what I will be. You've helped me in so many ways, that I wouldn't know where to start if I had to count them. I hope that we will always be friends no matter what hapens. I don't believe anything will hapen to break us up if we are in the will of God. I hope this doesn't sound like I am trying to push myself or that I'm foward, but I'm just writing what I believe + the way I feel. I have never told you before, that I know of, that when we first started liking each other I prayed that if it was God's will for us to like each other that everything would work out real good, but if it wasn't his will for something to hapen to break us up. I prayed about it for a couple of weeks. I set a dead line; By this time, I believed that if nothing happened we were in God's will. I am sure, since nothing hapened then + hasn't yet, that we are in God's will. I really appreciate you helping me in my school work, especially in algebra. I know I couldn't have done as well as I did if you haven't helped me. I don't know how to explain the way I feel about you in any other words except these: "I love you". I never thought I would get half of the first page finished, but all of a sudden my ink pen just started writing & my brain functioning & I didn't have any trouble finding the words. I am sorry I can not write straight. I mean everything I wrote.

Love,

Gale
